

Across

4. Not just different, but as different as two things can be.
6. To follow instructions without complaining.
7. Someone who is in one or more ways is in charge of a group of people.

Down

1. A finger which moves in the same, or opposite direction of the other fingers.
2. Someone that you know, and like.
3. To remain committed and do the right thing even when things might become difficult or unpopular.
5. Things would be boring if everyone was exactly the _____?